

What is it about the words Do Not Call don't you understand ? I do NOT want anyone calling my house that I either do not know or have not given my number to. Your first obligation should be to the public and not business interests